

Among Friends

SPRING 2015 Activities of the Friends of the Meaford Library

The Library has been in our local news quite a bit over the past couple of months, and while it is great to see attention paid to the need for a new library, there are many, sometimes conflicting, opinions on how that should be addressed.

Fortunately as "Friends" of our Meaford Library, our focus can stay neutral. Our goal is simple just like this sign - to raise funds to support and enhance, the services which our local library provides, wherever it is located!

For those of you who are able and enjoy volunteering at the Net Shed, our gently read book emporium, we hope you have marked your calendars for the following:

SATURDAY, MAY 9th, 2015 from 2-4 PM, at the NET SHED, for an Orientation Session before the start of a new season.

Come for all or just part of the afternoon, and enjoy a coffee with your Executive!

At that time, we encourage you to renew your membership, sign up for your preferred Net Shed shifts and receive an orientation on the duties of a Net Shed volunteer, including what has changed. You will also have first dibs on new book donations received over the winter!

We are fortunate to have two ladies helping to coordinate our book sales this year.

Chris Richardson will be our contact for volunteers to fill our Net Shed shifts.

Elyse Pike who will help us organize and maintain our inventory of good quality books. We need those books which are high in demand but we don't want to be tossing those rare finds which make the Net Shed a "treasure trove" for those who make a special trip to Meaford hoping to find that out-of-print title!

Paul Wehrle has been busy over the winter firming up our Sunday Evening Concert Series which starts again on Sunday, June 28th with Waverley Rice.

A concert is scheduled for each Sunday through to August 23rd. Watch for flyers or the Library website, announcing who the artist is each week. There is something to suit everyone's taste - but why not plan to attend them all? When you bring a comfortable lawn chair, it has to be one of the most enjoyable ways to spend a summer evening - with music and friends, overlooking Meaford harbour.

And don't forget to mark your calendars for THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 2015 at 7 PM.

Our AGM will be held in the Meaford Library Board Room.
Come vote for your Executive – or consider joining us!

I’m bringing a book.”
