

Friends of Meaford Library Summer Concerts 2026

Concert #3 by My Old Man on Sunday, 12 July 2026

My Old Man, aka Lloyd Mohr, is a local singer, songwriter, musician, who loves entertaining audiences of all ages. Lloyd began playing guitar several decades ago, recently turning his love of music into a semi-professional hobby.

Lloyd has experience ranging from singing in community choirs, to performing solo for friends' weddings, to being the front man in the local classic rock and roll band Millpond Project and to being a children's music performer. As a soloist, Lloyd enjoys a wide range of music often focusing on songs by well-known story teller songwriters like Harry Chapin, Bob Dylan, John Prine, and others.

My Old Man plays a mix of folk tunes, rock ballads, silly songs, musical stories, and the occasional original material. He's also a fan of many of today's up and coming Indie artists so be prepared to hear some rare and exciting tunes as well. Lloyd Mohr, appearing for the first time as a solo act at a Friends of Meaford Library summer concert, My Old Man promises an evening of great entertainment and lasting memories.
